

Steve Tyndal PPM®
Senior Director of Trade Development & Special Projects

Mr. Tyndal is responsible for trade development, marketing, communications, public relations and advertising for the port.

He is a native Floridian -- born in Winter Haven -- and has lived in Manatee County since 1981, moving to the area from Miami. There he worked in Florida Power and Light's corporate communications department, and served Bradenton's Tropicana as its manager of Public Relations.

Mr. Tyndal earned a degree in journalism from the University of Florida; is certified as a Professional Port Manager® by the American Association of Port Authorities; he is a two-time president of the Port Manatee Propeller Club and serves on a number of government, community service and professional committees and boards.